

Comparative table of the data indicated in the LA&RAP document, which received a No objection clause from the World Bank, and the data found in the supplement to the LA&RAP document – property figures summary

No.	CHANGE SUBJECT	DATA IN LA&RAP	DATA IN THE SUPPLEMENT (CURRENT DATA)	DIFFERENCE - DESCRIPTION
1.	Number of all properties on which the investment project is implemented (number of investment plots)	43	45	Currently – investment project implemented on 2 more plots
2.	Number of investment plots owned by the State Treasury – PGW WP at the time of commencement of the investment project	16	22	Currently – investment project implemented on 6 more parcels owned by ST – PGW WP
3.	Number of investment plots owned by the State Treasury represented by an entity other than PGW WP (in respect of which there has only been a change in the representing entity)	22	20	Currently – the investment project is implemented on 2 fewer plots owned by the State Treasury – the representing entity
4.	Number of privately owned investment plots	2	2	No changes
5.	Number of investment plots owned by local government units (commune, county, voivodeship)	2	0	Currently – investment project implemented on 2 fewer plots owned by local government units
6.	Number of investment plots owned by the commune and simultaneously held in perpetual usufruct by a private entity	1	1	No changes

Appendix 5 to the Supplement

7.	Number of investment plots owned by State Treasury and simultaneously held in perpetual usufruct by a private entity	1	1	No changes
8.	Number of plots intended for temporary take (mowing greenery) owned by private entities (individuals and companies)	37	32	Currently – temporary take affects 5 fewer private plots
9.	Number of plots intended for temporary take (mowing greenery) owned by the State Treasury	60	63	Currently – temporary take affects 3 more State Treasury plots
10.	Number of plots intended for temporary take (greenery mowing) owned by local government units	21	23	Currently – temporary take involves 2 more parcels of local government units (one parcel is owned by a commune and is in perpetual usufruct by a private individual – included twice in both cases)