

REFERENCE: SCA/16/24 (05)

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Missions of Member States to the United Nations and invites Member States to recommend qualified individuals to serve on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2140 (2014) on Yemen, and extended by resolution 2707 (2023), subject to the extension of its mandate by the Security Council in November 2024 in pursuance of paragraph 2 of resolution 2707 (2023). The Panel of Experts on Yemen, which is comprised of five experts, operates under the direction of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 2140 (2014).

Recommended candidates should possess a minimum of ten years of progressively responsible experience, with a minimum of three years of field experience, in the below mentioned relevant areas of expertise and competence:

- arms,
- armed groups,
- finance,
- international humanitarian law,
- regional issues.

The selection process will include an interview and other assessment methods to evaluate candidates' suitability. Sanctions experts are selected on the basis of demonstrated expertise in the relevant area of work, experience and educational background, with due regard to equitable geographic representation and gender balance. English and French are the working languages of the United Nations Secretariat. For the above-mentioned positions, fluency in English is required; knowledge of Arabic is an advantage.

Appointment duration is in accordance with the mandate of the Panel of Experts established by the Security Council. Experts are hired as consultants in line with the United Nations' administrative instruction concerning consultants and individual contractors (ST/AI/2013/4). For further information on the Panel of Experts established pursuant to resolution 2140 (2014) on Yemen, please visit: <https://www.un.org/securitycouncil/sanctions/2140/panel-of-experts/work-and-mandate>

Member States are invited to submit the names and curricula vitae (CVs) of their nominated candidates to the Security Council Affairs Division in the Department of Political and Peacebuilding Affairs, United Nations no later than 7 October 2024, through the following e-mail address: sc-2140-committee@un.org. In addition, Member States should request their nominated candidates to apply online by 7 October 2024 at the below URLs. Only applications received through the online platform will be considered.
