

Ispol-Projekt

- Location: Łódź, Poland
- Engineering company with main activity in the area of preparation and support of projects in the energy sector
- 20 years of experience across Europe
- High competences of a qualified team of designers and specialists in the field of public administration and civil law
- Great experience and knowledge in power system projects and high scale renewable energy sources

ispOL-projekt
Icelandic-Polish Energy Engineering Company

Vision of the company

The company's vision is a modern and climate-friendly energy system in Poland and in Europe, based on new generation technologies, using the experience and achievements of technology platforms of intelligent energy networks of the future (Smart Grid).

The company supports Transmission Distribution System Operators (TSO and DSOs) as well as other energy investors in their projects facilitating economic and ecological sustainable development of energy sector, including:

- RES: wind farms, PV plants, CHPs,
- Energy Storage Systems,
- Transmission lines (overhead and underground) and power substations up to 400 kV.

