

Cyprus, Greece, Poland, Slovenia, Hungary, Lithuania

How to make the most of the European Partnerships in Horizon Europe?

Webinar, Monday 7 November 2022
Time: 10:00 CEST/11:00 EDT

AGENDA

CEST
10:00 - 10:05	Welcome by the organisers
10:05 - 10:20	Overview of the European Partnerships: the concept, types and role in the EU's R&amp;I landscape – Mihaela Williams, DG Research & Innovation, European Commission
10:20 - 11:40	Panel discussion with practitioners involved in the selected European Partnerships: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Made in Europe - Željko Pazin (EFFRA - Executive Director)</li> <li>- Processes4Planet - Evelina Paunksnyte (A.SPIRE – Operations Collaborator)</li> <li>- Experts and beneficiaries: Dr. Elisabeth Ilie-Zudor, Institute for Computer Science and Control – Head, Intelligent Information Management group, Research Laboratory of Engineering and Management Intelligence, Hungary (Made in Europe) Dr. Jan Bondaruk, Central Mining Institute – Deputy Director for Environmental Engineering, Poland (Processes4Planet) Prof. Igor Kovač, Jožef Stefan Institute – Head of Strategic Research and Innovation Partnership for Factories of the Future, Slovenia (Made in Europe) Tomas Garuolis, Lithuanian Confederation of Industrialists – Director of the Department of Business Environment and Economy (Processes4Planet)</li> </ul> Moderated by: Ewa Kocińska-Lange (Director of the NCBR Brussels Office)
11:40 - 12:00	Q&amp;A session

