

Building Trust to Reinforce Democracy: Main Findings from the 2021 OECD Survey on Drivers of Trust in Public Institutions

Launch webinar - 13 July 2022

Join us for the launch of the OECD report:

Building Trust to Reinforce Democracy: Main Findings from the 2021 OECD Survey on Drivers of Trust in Public Institutions

 13 July 2022 from 2 pm to 3.15 pm (CEST)

 Online (Zoom)

REGISTER NOW

Representing the voices of over 50,000 people across 22 countries, the main findings of the inaugural OECD Trust Survey present a comprehensive cross-national assessment of what drives public trust in democratic government today.

Agenda

Introductory remarks (pre-recorded videos):

Mr. Xavier Bettel,
Prime Minister of Luxembourg

Mr. Matthias Cormann,
Secretary-General of the OECD

Presentation of results:

Ms. Elsa Pilichowski,
Director, OECD Directorate for Public Governance

Panel discussion:

Ms. Caroline Bilkey,
Ambassador to the OECD, New Zealand

Mr. Dominic LeBlanc, Minister of Intergovernmental Affairs,
Infrastructure and Communities,
Canada

Ms. Mariana Vieira da Silva,
Minister of the Presidency,
Portugal

Mr. Dustin Brown, Deputy Assistant Director for Management, Office of Management and Budget, United States. Chair of OECD Public
Governance Committee
(Moderator)

Q&A with participants

For more information and to access the report on the day of the launch, please visit our website.

Follow us on

