

REDEFINE TECH INNOVATION THROUGH THE xTECHINTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

The Army xTech Program is creating a path for non-traditional international businesses in the areas of water, power & energy, and synthetic biology to break down barriers in doing business with the Department of Defense while awarding up to $480K in cash prizes

KEY BENEFITS

ACCESS  Direct Access to DoD and International Stakeholders	FEEDBACK  Transparent and Detailed Feedback from Multi-Disciplinary Expert Networking	EDUCATION & MENTORING  Mentoring and Educational Opportunities Through Accelerator Programming	CASH PRIZES  Earn Up to $480K in Cash Prizes
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

AFWERX

The xTechInternational Competition is open now until April 15, 2022. For additional information and updates, check out our website and follow us on social media. You can also apply here: https://usg.valideval.com/teams/xtech_International/signup

LEARN MORE

www.xtechsearch.army.mil

U.S. ARMY

AFWERX

