

EQUALIZE

WORLD AIDS DAY

1 DECEMBER 2022

1 DECEMBER 2022

Join member states, international organizations and communities working on AIDS in Geneva for an afternoon of action and solidarity for World AIDS Day. We will hear from activists and global health leaders and take a photo of a “human red ribbon” at the Place des Nations.

PROGRAMME

14:00–14:45 | United to Equalize against AIDS

Venue: Red Ribbon Café, UNAIDS-WHO D Building.

Voice of Communities

- Maurine Murenga, Executive Director of Lean on Me Foundation Kenya, member of UNITAID Board
- Gracia Violeta Ross, HIV Focal Point, World Council of Churches

World AIDS Day message: Winnie Byanyima, Executive Director of UNAIDS (video)

Leadership in the AIDS response

- Loyce Pace, Assistant Secretary, Office of Global Affairs, U.S. Department of HHS
- Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, Director-General of the World Health Organization

Video: Alisson Becker, Brazilian footballer & WHO Goodwill Ambassador for Health Promotion

Call to action

- H.E. Mr. Jurg Lauber, Switzerland
- Claire Moran, Director for Global Health, FCDO, United Kingdom
- Birgit Poniatowski, Executive Director, IAS
- Kseniya Kirichenko, ILGA World

Closing

- Marijke Wijnroks, Chief of Staff, Global Fund on AIDS, TB and Malaria
- H.E. Mrs. Suphatra Srimaitreephithak, Thailand

14:45–15:15 | Solidarity walk to Place des Nations

15:15–16:00 | Photo commemoration at Place des Nations

Please RSVP to internalcomms@unaid.org and/or register on the following link to access the building:
UNAIDS World AIDS Day – Equalize event \(8 November 2022–1 December 2022\): Overview – Indico

Unite to end the inequalities holding back the end of AIDS

