

How to appeal?

Any visa refusal is documented on a visa refusal form, which includes the reasons for the decision. If you disagree with the consul's decision, you have the right to request a reconsideration of your visa application. To do this, you must submit additional documents—including the refusal decision, an appeal letter, and any other supporting materials—within 14 calendar days of receiving the refusal.

Appeals can be submitted in person at the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland in Hong Kong during the following days and times:

Tuesday and Thursday: 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM and 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM
