

Call for Nominations

The global InnoVISION Ecosystem Awards are a celebration of innovative ecosystems around the world, annually showcasing achievements made and applied internationally. This year's InnoVISION event will be held digitally on October 13th within the DLD Sync Tel Aviv 2020 event, and broadcasted worldwide from the innovative city of Tel Aviv.

The InnoVISION committee will review every nomination based on the criteria specified in the Rules and Guidelines of the competition and select 8 final nominees. Selected final nominees will present their outstanding achievements during the event.

Whether you're a municipality, district, or tech park, we're on the search for the most impactful, unique, creative, and innovative achievements being made around the world.

*We will get in touch with questions and/or the next steps after reviewing your nomination.
