

Compilation of Member State responses on modalities of students' mobility under the Students and Researchers Directive (EU) 2016/801<sup>1</sup>

In this document the European Commission has compiled information provided by EU Member States on the modalities of students' mobility in the EU resulting from their implementation of the Students and Researchers Directive (EU) 2016/801. The information contained here was notified by Member States in 2020 and 2021. Changes may occur. In case of doubt, please turn to the relevant Member State authorities.

The table contains the following questions and is divided into 3 parts:

Part 1 covers questions 1-5

1. Has your Member State introduced a notification procedure for the purpose of mobility of students (Art. 31(2) of the Directive)?
2. Which entity is entitled to make the notification (e.g. the higher education institution in the first Member State, the higher education institution in the second Member State or the student)?
3. Which authority is to be notified for the purpose of mobility of students in your Member State?
4. What is the form of the notification (e.g. online, on paper)?
5. What is the address of the authority (e-mail if applicable)?

Part 2 covers questions 6-10

6. Is there a notification form established in your Member State? Where the form can be found (see related questions and replies 6a and 6b in part 3)?
7. In which language should the notification be made? Should the translation of the documents be certified?
8. Does the legislation of your Member State provide that an objection may be raised by the competent authority within 30 days from having received the complete notification (Art. 31 (7) of the Directive)?
9. When may student mobility take place (Art. 31(3) and (4) of the Directive)? Can the notification be made after the foreigner entered your country on the basis of the Schengen rules?
10. Does your Member State issue a document to the student attesting that s/he is entitled to stay in the territory of your Member State and enjoy the rights provided for in this Directive (Art. 31 (10) of the Directive)?

Part 3 covers questions 6a and 6b (these questions are separate due to the large volume of text contained in the responses)

- 6a. What information is to be included in the notification (if no notification form has been established)?
- 6b. What documents are to be attached to the notification (and other possible requirements concerning the notification)?
