

Rules for appointments for work national visa (D-type)

The Consulate General in Hong Kong kindly informs that all applications for WORK visas must now be registered through the e-konsulat system in the section “National visa – work” only.

The section “National Visa – other” is strictly dedicated to other (than work) purposes of travelling to Poland.

Applications for Work visas registered through the section “National visa – other” will not be accepted!

In order to submit the Work visa application please follow the rules below.

1. Go to the e-konsulat website: <https://secure.e-konsulat.gov.pl/> or <https://secure2.e-konsulat.gov.pl/value/otpa>
 - select country “China”, diplomatic mission “Hong Kong”
 - select from the menu “National Visa – Register form”
2. Select the type of service: “National visa – work” and location;
3. Read carefully the general terms and conditions of the procedure;
4. Click “complete the preliminary visa application form” and in the next step fill in the form. Remember that the data in the application must be the same as the data in your documents (i.e. the work permit, passport etc.);
5. You will receive a request to confirm the preliminary application on your e-mail. You have to confirm your application within 48 hours;
6. After you confirm the preliminary application, your data will be verified. You will receive information on the results via e-mail. Positive result of verification entitles you to complete the full visa application within the next 48 hours. If the application is not completed within this time, your booking will be cancelled and the data removed from the system;
7. The date of your appointment will be assigned via an electronic draw;
8. After your application has been successfully drawn, we will send you an email with the appointment date. If your application has not been drawn, it will remain in the system for the next draws. You do not need to register again;
9. When you receive the email with the appointment date, please print, sign and submit the application personally together with supporting documents.

Please note:

The drawing process is fully automated. Consular officers are not involved in this process.

Random selection of the appointment slots for applicants intending to work in Poland will be conducted by the e-konsulat system weekly.

Customers shall arrive at the Consulate individually at the appointed time only.

Information on the visa process will not be disclosed to third parties (i.e. work agencies).

The Consulate does not collaborate with any commercial visa agencies. The only cost of the visa application process is the visa fee charged directly by the Consulate on the appointment day.
